

Interested in learning English and finding a job?

Come to our Refugee Week celebration and find out about access to ESOL, employment and how affects our health

on Saturday, 4 July 2009, 1.30 - 7pm at Princess May School, Princess May Road London N16 8DF

As well as meeting people from services who can help you find a job and learn English, there will be a panel on employment and ESOL needs, food, music, dancing, childcare and a raffle!

Hackney Refugee Forum presents this Access to Information event in partnership with Hackney African Forum, Busoga Association UK, RWCA, ASPC, HFCC, TCC, SOS Families, IYC, Liberty SS, London Saz School, AGROFOREP, Halkevi, RENK-ART, African Community School, Zenith Women Association, Find Your Voice, IDMC and mainstream service providers

Stalls are available - contact Ibrahim or Ali on 020 7923 1962 or email ali@hcvs.org.uk

HRF
Hackney
Refugee
Forum

84 Springfield House
5 Tyssen Street London E8 2LY
Tel: 020 7923 1962
hackneyrefugeeforum@hotmail.co.uk
www.hackneyrefugeeforum.org.uk

Hackney Refugee Forum (HRF) is a registered Company No: 6435144. Registered office: 84 Springfield House, 5 Tyssen Street London E8 2LY. Contact www.hackneyrefugeeforum.org.uk HRF is part funded by the Community Empowerment Network (CEN), which helps community groups have a say and influence how local services are planned and delivered. Contact Liz on 020 7923 1962.

