 Changing Lives will grow as we add images from more of our VCS groups. Look out as it tours the borough for six months at public spaces, community buildings and local estate halls.

Changing Lives has been organised by Hackney Council for Voluntary Service (HCVS) together with funding from Team Hackney.

Changing Lives

Celebrating Hackney's voluntary and community sector

Here at HCVS, we know the sector has a huge impact on improving life in Hackney and we want to shout about it!

Our project, Changing Lives, is a touring exhibition, DVD, booklet and website to celebrate the work of our voluntary and community sector (VCS), to champion you as well as the communities whose lives are changed as a result of what you do.

We commissioned a photographer Katherine Green to record the work of 12 of Hackney's VCS groups. But this is just a flavour of the sector, we want to feature more VCS groups. So we can show off the impact of the fantastic work out there and why the sector needs future investment.

Your help is vital to making this a success:

- Send us your photos of your staff, volunteers and people who use your service and we will show them at the exhibition. Please make sure you have people's permission, if your photos are of vulnerable adults or those aged under 18 you must get written permission from their guardians.
- Host this exhibition at your venue or meeting – we hope to get a lot of publicity for this project and want as many people to see it as possible. If you can host our exhibition, either on its own or as part of an event, please get in touch and get free publicity for your work.

Where next for Changing Lives?

You can catch a look at these places. We want to exhibit at more venues including arts and community spaces, public sector offices including Graeae and Hackney libraries so watch this space!
